Join Cabrillo College Spanish instructor Consuelo España at the University of Belgrano. The program is a four-week intensive language and culture study program in the most cosmopolitan city in South America—Buenos Aires, Argentina.

The program is tailored to your language level with classes that will not exceed eight students. To provide a continuous language-learning environment, Argentine families will host our students, and the many cultural sites of Buenos Aires will provide the context in which to learn about Argentine history and culture.

To request a space, e-mail Consuelo España at coespana@cabrillo.edu or call (831) 479-6515. All participants must register for a Spanish Summer 2008 class at Cabrillo and must attend ONE of the mandatory orientations.
