Maryhill
(originally named New Germany)
Ontario, Canada

Dear Cousins:

Here is a little explanation about the enclosed photos. In October, 2007, Janice and I visited the cemetery in Maryhill, Ontario, Canada (formerly called New Germany), where Johann Muller, his wife, Maria (Mary) and one son, Alexander, were buried. We did find all the mentioned markers but we were disappointed to find Johann's marker broken in half and only the top half above ground. Because he is the patriarch of many Miller descendants in the United States and Canada, we decided to have his broken stone replaced with a more sturdy one. Working over many months with a monument company in Breslau, Ontario, we now have the beautiful replacement stone in place. It was suggested by the company that the remaining part of the original stone be encased in concrete and placed in front of the new stone. The new stone has a solid foundation some 40-50 inches into the ground. It should be there for many years for our future descendants to view. The company, as you can see from the photos, did a very good job.

It is with great pride and pleasure that Janice and I share these photos and the accompanying story with you, our fellow descendants of Johann and Maria Muller (Mueller, Miller).

Love ,

John T. Fennell

Great great grandson of Johann and Maria

REV. FATHER WENDEL MILLER

CALLED BY DEATH WEDNESDAY

~~son~~ ^{son} Fred D. Miller

1919

Beloved Priest, Former Resident of St. Michael's
District, Did Life's Work in Fourteen Years.

SOLEMN HIGH MASS SUNG BY NEPHEW

Friends and Members of Clergy Come From Distant Points to Honor His Memory. Remains Lay in State at St. Michael's Church From Friday Until Saturday, Guarded by Members of K. of C.

Saturday St. Michael's church was the scene of one of the saddest funerals of its history when solemn high mass was sung for Rev. Father Wendel Miller, who was called by death at Gladwin, Wednesday evening, September 24th at six o'clock following a paraletic attack of the previous Sunday.

The remains arrived at St. Michael's from Gladwin at about four o'clock Friday afternoon and from that time until interment lay in state within the church, members of the Knights of Columbus standing guard during the night. At nine-thirty Saturday morning Fr. Urban Miller of Grand Rapids a nephew of the deceased, assisted by Fathers' Alex Zugelder of Beal City, as deacon. Albert Bauman of Frankfort, as sub-deacon and John Sonefeld of Muskegon, as master of ceremonies, sang a solemn requiem. Rev. John McAllister of Rosebush delivered a striking sermon, after which, Father Vogl of Grand Rapids, a former pastor of St. Michael's parish, conducted the obsequies. Interment being made at St. Michael's cemetery.

Obituary 1919

Miss Elizabeth Miller was born May 13, 1883 on the farm about one-half mile east of Remus, now owned by Joseph Miller. Miss Miller fitted herself for a teacher and taught for a number of years. She then kept house for her brother Fr. Wendel Miller at Gladwin, for a number of years. Desiring a change, she accepted a position in the post office at this place with her brother Fred at this place, for a period of time, but for the past year had kept house for Fr. W. Miller, at whose home she died, Sunday, May 25, 1919 at the age of 36 years and 12 days.

She leaves to mourn, three sisters and five brothers: Carrie Miller, of Chicago; Mrs. Ed Wendling, of Remus; Sister Mary Miller, of Mt. Hope Home, of Grand Rapids, at present teaching in Bay City; Albert Miller, of Omaha; Fred of Scottville; Fr. Wendel Miller, of Gladwin; Alex and Joseph, of Remus and many friends who held her in high esteem.
